Re: Kuck v. Danaher, Commissioner, Department of Public Safety, et al.

Docket No. 3:07-cv-1390(VLB) (D.Conn.)

Dear Ms. Janeiro:

Your letter dated October 12, 2007, does not propose a method of individual service that meets the standards of law set forth in our state law or the applicable federal law and rules. Although we have attempted to handle this matter with the respect and courtesy due to individuals holding such positions of public trust as Commissioner and Commanding Officer within the Department of Public Safety, it appears that the individuals John A. Danaher, III and Albert J. Masek, Jr. are actively avoiding lawful service.

I will instruct a State Marshal to complete personal in hand or abode service. Please provide, pursuant to our state Freedom of Information Act, any calendars for state business reflecting the schedules for Commissioner John A. Danaher, III and Commanding Officer Albert J. Masek, Jr. for the time period October 17, 2007, through January 17, 2008.

Sincerely,

Rachel M. Baird, Attorney
