Another update. Spoke with someone at the state of CT special licensing & firearms division & asked if i could check the status of my application & was told that unfortunately i have to go through my city. She asked how long it had been & she said that it hasn't been that long & it could be up to 4 months. Once again i asked about the 8 week statute & she said that it does exist but isn't followed & there's no penalty for not following it.
